ample Letter #1

Our hiring committee has reviewed your resume and would like to meet with you in person. We are particularly interested in your law enforcement experience and want to discuss how you feel it might complement our plant security.

We are scheduling interviews with applicants for Thursday, March 2, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. If you are able to meet with us on that day, please call my secretary at 555-5555 to reserve a time. If Thursday is inconvenient, feel free to make other arrangements with her. All interviews will be held in the Doe conference room on the second floor of building A. We look forward to meeting with you.

Sample Letter #2

Thank you for visiting my office last week to discuss employment possibilities. I have reviewed your resume and would like you to meet with me and the other managers for a formal interview next week.

Please call my secretary, John Doe, at 555-5555 at your earliest convenience to schedule an appointment. I will look forward to meeting you again.

Sample Letter #1

We appreciate your interest in applying for employment at Doe's. Our job announcement brought 30 applications for the two supervisor openings. Your application was very strong, and you were among the four finalists, but we have offered the positions to two applicants who had lengthy supervisory experience specifically in road construction. Otherwise, you have excellent credentials and will surely find other employment soon.

Sample Letter #2

Thank you for your interest in employment with Doe Van Lines. While your years of on-the-road experience are impressive, we were able to find an applicant who is willing to relocate when our Springfield depot opens. We wish you success in pursuing a career in the local trucking industry. Your knowledge and experience should be great assets in your job search.
