Text:

I couldn't believe what happened last night. I was driving home when I noticed a boy, about fourteen, biking alone at that late time. At first, I didn't pay much attention, but very shortly things got wrong.

While I was turning, a car pulled out of a side road without looking. The boy in trouble, lost control of his bike, he skidded as he tried to brake. He hit the car in the middle of the road and was thrown off.

Unfortunately, he was hurt badly because he didn't wear his helmet. Some witnesses arrived rapidly and called the police who came at the same time of the ambulance which took the boy to hospital.

The driver of the car denied his full responsibility. Thanks to the intervention of one of the witnesses, we could explain the scene.
