PART ONE: READING (15points)

Chinese consumers are losing confidence in their country's dairy industry after the latest contaminated milk products scandal. Almost 6,500 babies and children have become ill and four have died. Several hundred infants now have kidney problems. Many children need operations to remove stones from their kidneys. The reason for this tragedy is the poisonous compound added to the milk to increase the level of protein in it. The country's biggest dairy company admitted finding the deadly melamine chemical in its baby powder. The same chemical has also been found in liquid milk. Supermarkets are clearing their shelves of domestic milk products.

The Chinese government has ordered emergency checks on all dairy products. 10% of the items it tested contained melamine. Officials have promised to punish those responsible for the scandal. The crisis has spread beyond China's borders, with Malaysia, Singapore and Japan banning Chinese milk imports. A famous coffee company in China has reacted quickly. Hundreds of its coffee shops have stopped serving drinks with milk. This measure is affecting its business.

الموضوع الثاني

PART ONE: READING (15points)

Greedy companies have found a new way of selling their products to children: Internet games. The world's junk food makers are trying to sell their burgers, chocolate and soft drinks to children who play online. A report says more than 80% of the world's food companies are using this tricky new method. This report highlights the tactics of companies in targeting kids. It also says online ads are more effective than TV ads at hooking children.

The report sadly brings a new word into the English vocabulary – the “advergame”. This is a technique to get children hooked while they are having fun online. In addition, many other marketing tactics are used to get children to spend long periods of time online. The food companies fill the games with logos and advertisements. Children can increase their chances of winning games by buying the products. Many people are worried about the role that food advertising plays in childhood obesity.
